Class History

The Class of 1950 entered Randolph High School September 6, 1946, to begin four years of higher learning and to make many friendships. Our class enrollment at the beginning of the year was 26. Kay Springer and Jimmy Latham left and enrolled in other schools.

Mr. Wesley Koehler was elected class sponsor for the year. The following officers were elected for the first and second semesters:

President-Lyle Pfaff--Dick Malmstrom
Vice President-Arnold Hedke--Marlene Kershaw
Secretary-Ruth Pate--Arnold Hedke
Treasurer-Dick Malmstrom--Jackie Anderson
Reporter-Marilyn Dettmer--Opal Hedren
Student Council--Nancy Carnahan

The important social events for the year included parties and picnics.

We began our high school career with a great interest in athletics. Ten boys lettered in football, and nine participated in basketball. Nine girls participated in basketball.

Jackie Anderson honored our class by playing a piano solo at Concordia; Marlene Kershaw and LaVerne Sump represented us in the mixed chorus.

Jerry Schwartz transferred from Leonardville, and our Sophomore enrollment was 25.

Social events for this year included a hayrack ride on Carnahan Creek and a line party at the Sosna Theatre in Manhattan.

Again this year, we were well represented in athletics. Most of the boys and all the girls were in glee club. Nine were members of the band.

Nancy Carnahan and Marlene Kershaw attended Y-Teen camp this summer.

We elected the following officers:

President-Ruth Pate--Junior Mann
Vice President-Arnold Hedke--Marilyn Dettmer
Secretary-Jo Ann Burgman--Arnold Hedke
Treasurer-Marlene Kershaw--Nancy Carnahan
Reporter-Lyle Pfaff--Marlene Kershaw
Student Council--Robert Springer
Sponsors--Mrs. Faith Keiffer and Miss Lillie Johnson

We began our Junior year with 28 members. The new members who joined our ranks were David Nordlund, Kay Springer, Jim Anderson, and Maxine Murk. Maxine left in March to enroll at Olsburg High School. Alice Richter transferred to Barnes after her Sophomore year.

Ten Junior girls were members of the undefeated girls' basketball squad. Marilyn Dettmer and Opal Hedren were chosen as cheerleaders. Ten were in band. Marlene Kershaw and Marilyn Dettmer were members of the girls' sextette. Dick Malmstrom and Milton Wendland were in the boys' quartette. Nancy Carnahan and Ruth Pate attended the Hutchinson State Fair for one week on a 4-H judging team. Ruth also attended in 1949.

We presented our Junior Play, "Auntie's Big Joke", November 23, 1948. Miss Medill was the director.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was held in the Methodist Church basement, April 29. The theme was "Holiday Inn."

The officers for the year were:

President-Jerry Schwartz--Arnold Hedke
Vice President-Marlene Kershaw--Milton Wendland
Secretary-Maxine Murk--Marilyn Dettmer
Treasurer-Robert Springer--Jim Anderson
Reporter-David Nordlund--Lyle Pfaff
Student Council--Jo Ann Burgman
Sponsors--Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. Tucker, and Miss Johnson

LaVerne Sump attended Y-Teen camp this summer.

The Senior Class of 1950 entered their last year at R. R. H. S. with 27 students. 23 of this number began as Freshmen at Randolph High. We started early in the year to raise money for the "sneak". A carnival was given by the class October 25. We sold concessions at one football game and several basketball games. We sold magazines on a commission.

Most of us attended the American Royal. Jim Anderson played in the National F. F. A. Band at Kansas City for one week, which was a great honor for our class.

Class officers were as follows:

President-Jim Anderson--Bob Springer
Vice President-Dick Malmstrom--Jackie Anderson
Secretary-Lyle Pfaff--Dick Malmstrom
Treasurer-Bob Springer--Marion Brenner
Reporter-Milton Wendland--Phil Byarlay
Sponsors-Mr. R. C. Stephens--Mr. L. C. Dillon

CLASS PROPHECY

It is now the year of 1960. In the Diamond Room of Boles Hotel, Randolph, Kansas, an exquisite banquet is being held. Present are many of the most famous and important citizens of the Nation. Only by their best friends can they be recognized as the Class of 1950 from R. R. H. S.

Claude DeLong, now married to Lu Ann Boles, is Master of Ceremonies. They have been running the Hotel for the past seven years and have made it a very thriving business enterprise. At roll call each member stands and tells about his or her present work.

We are not surprised to find that Jackie and Jim Anderson were married as soon as Jim graduated from K-State, and are now living on the Anderson Farm, which is located north of Randolph, and $\frac{1}{2}$ mile south of the Tuttle Creek Dam. Jim is very interested in his purebred Brahma Dairy.

Junior Mann answers roll with a very interesting synopsis of his current book, "Four Easy Lessons for a Perfect Physique."

Next, Marilyn Dettmer gave us a brief out-line of herself. Yes, after graduating, she married her High School sweetheart, Bobby Johnson, and has been helping him in his office where he is manager of I. H.C. in Des Moines, Iowa.

Arnold Hedke tells us that since graduating from K-State, he has become over-seer of the Tuttle Creek Dam. For the benefit of all his old girlfriends, he is still single and his office is on 10th and Main, Randolph, Kansas.

We noticed a very sly-looking young gentleman in a dark suit and a bright red bow tie. It was none other than Arlo Peterson, who is running the Bank Club in Reno, Nevada.

Nancy and Buzzy finally decided to settle down. Buzzy is now carrying out his farming program in the rich Blue Valley at the mouth of Carnahan Creek. They have twins, a boy and girl, who have been given the names, Jerry and Cherry.

Two members of the class have risen to the top in National Politics. They are Phil Byarlay, who is president of United States, and Jo Ann Burgman, his faithful secretary. Phil is still single, but it is rumored that Jo Ann will be the first lady of the United States pretty soon.

Kay Springer is married to Ralph DeWyke, who is running the BBM & Co. Kay spends her spare time drawing pictures for the Carnegie Art Institute.

One fellow attracted our attention right away. Guess who it was! None other than David Nordlund, who is taking the place of Guy Lombardo. His report tells us he will be playing in Kansas City soon.

Lyle Pfaff informs us that he is now head of the "Happy Hooligan Cab Service", and is still looking for his One and Only.

There was one lady whom everyone was interested in. Yes! it was Joan Roblyer, who is the World Famous Wrestler. Joan has been married four times, and has two adopted children, Joe and Jerry.

Roger Stitt surprised us. He is now president of Harvard University. He shouldn't get lonesome as one of his classmates is a big wheel there also, Harlan Forslund is head janitor.

The students were not surprised to hear that Marion Brenner is running a big Wyoming sheep ranch, and that isn't all. He is raising cane, and giving his wife a hard time. He came back to Randolph three years after graduating and marries his High School sweetheart, Deona Peterson.

To our surprise, Robert Springer tells us he is appearing in "Yes, Sir, That's My Baby", and tells us it's a good picture and everyone should see it.

Everyone thought Jerry Schwartz would settle down on a farm, but he decided to become a missionary to China. He gave a very interesting and exciting resume of his experiences there.

Ruth Pate settled down as soon as school was out. Her husband, Charlie Wohler, is now running the Wohler-Eshbaugh Funeral Home. Ruth is quite busy taking care of their baby boy, Charlie, Jr.

If anyone is interested in purchasing Guinea Pigs, we are happy to inform you that Mr. and Mrs. Arland Benteman, the former Miss La Verne Sump, now own and operate "The Squealy Guinea Pig Co".

Yes! Everyone had been surprised when Arland and LaVerne were married on the Senior Sneak, April 1, 1950.

Last, but not least, we thought we were all through, but we received some telegrams from the members who were unable to attend.

Marlene Kershaw said she was very sorry she couldn't attend. She is a Registered Nurse, and her patient, Eldon Springer, had a serious case of "Lovesick Blues", and couldn't be left alone at any time.

Because of an unexpected elopement and honeymoon to Paris with her director, Miss Opal Hedren, leading lady in "Here Comes the Navy", sent her greetings and a picture of herself to all.

Just as the Banquet was closing and each was wishing the other success for the coming years, in flew a carrier pigeon with the message, "Due to the Phillip 66 Oilers and K-State Basketball game tonight, I will be detained until ten o'clock when the Oilers will land on the Holmberg Meadow. Signed: Dick Malmstrom."

CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of Randolph Rural High, City of Randolph, State of Kansas, Nineteen Hundred and Fifty, wish to express our kind thoughts and appreciation to our teachers who have been so good to us the past four years of our High School career.

We, the Senior Class, will our ability to be quiet in class, and our ability to have all A students to the underclassmen.

We, the Senior boys, will our ability to run a class meeting properly, to the Freshman Class.

We, the Senior girls, will our pleasing personalities to the Sophomore and Junior girls.

We hereby leave our ability to clean up after ourselves to "Tom", the janitor.

I, Jackie Anderson, bequeath my ability to play the piano to Harold Hargrave.

I, Arnold Hedke, bequeath my little "A" to Roger Olsen to take all my girlfriends to school in.

I, Marlene Kershaw, bequeath my ability to play Basketball to Mervin Forslund.

I, Arlo Peterson, bequeath my quietness to Rhoda Dillon.

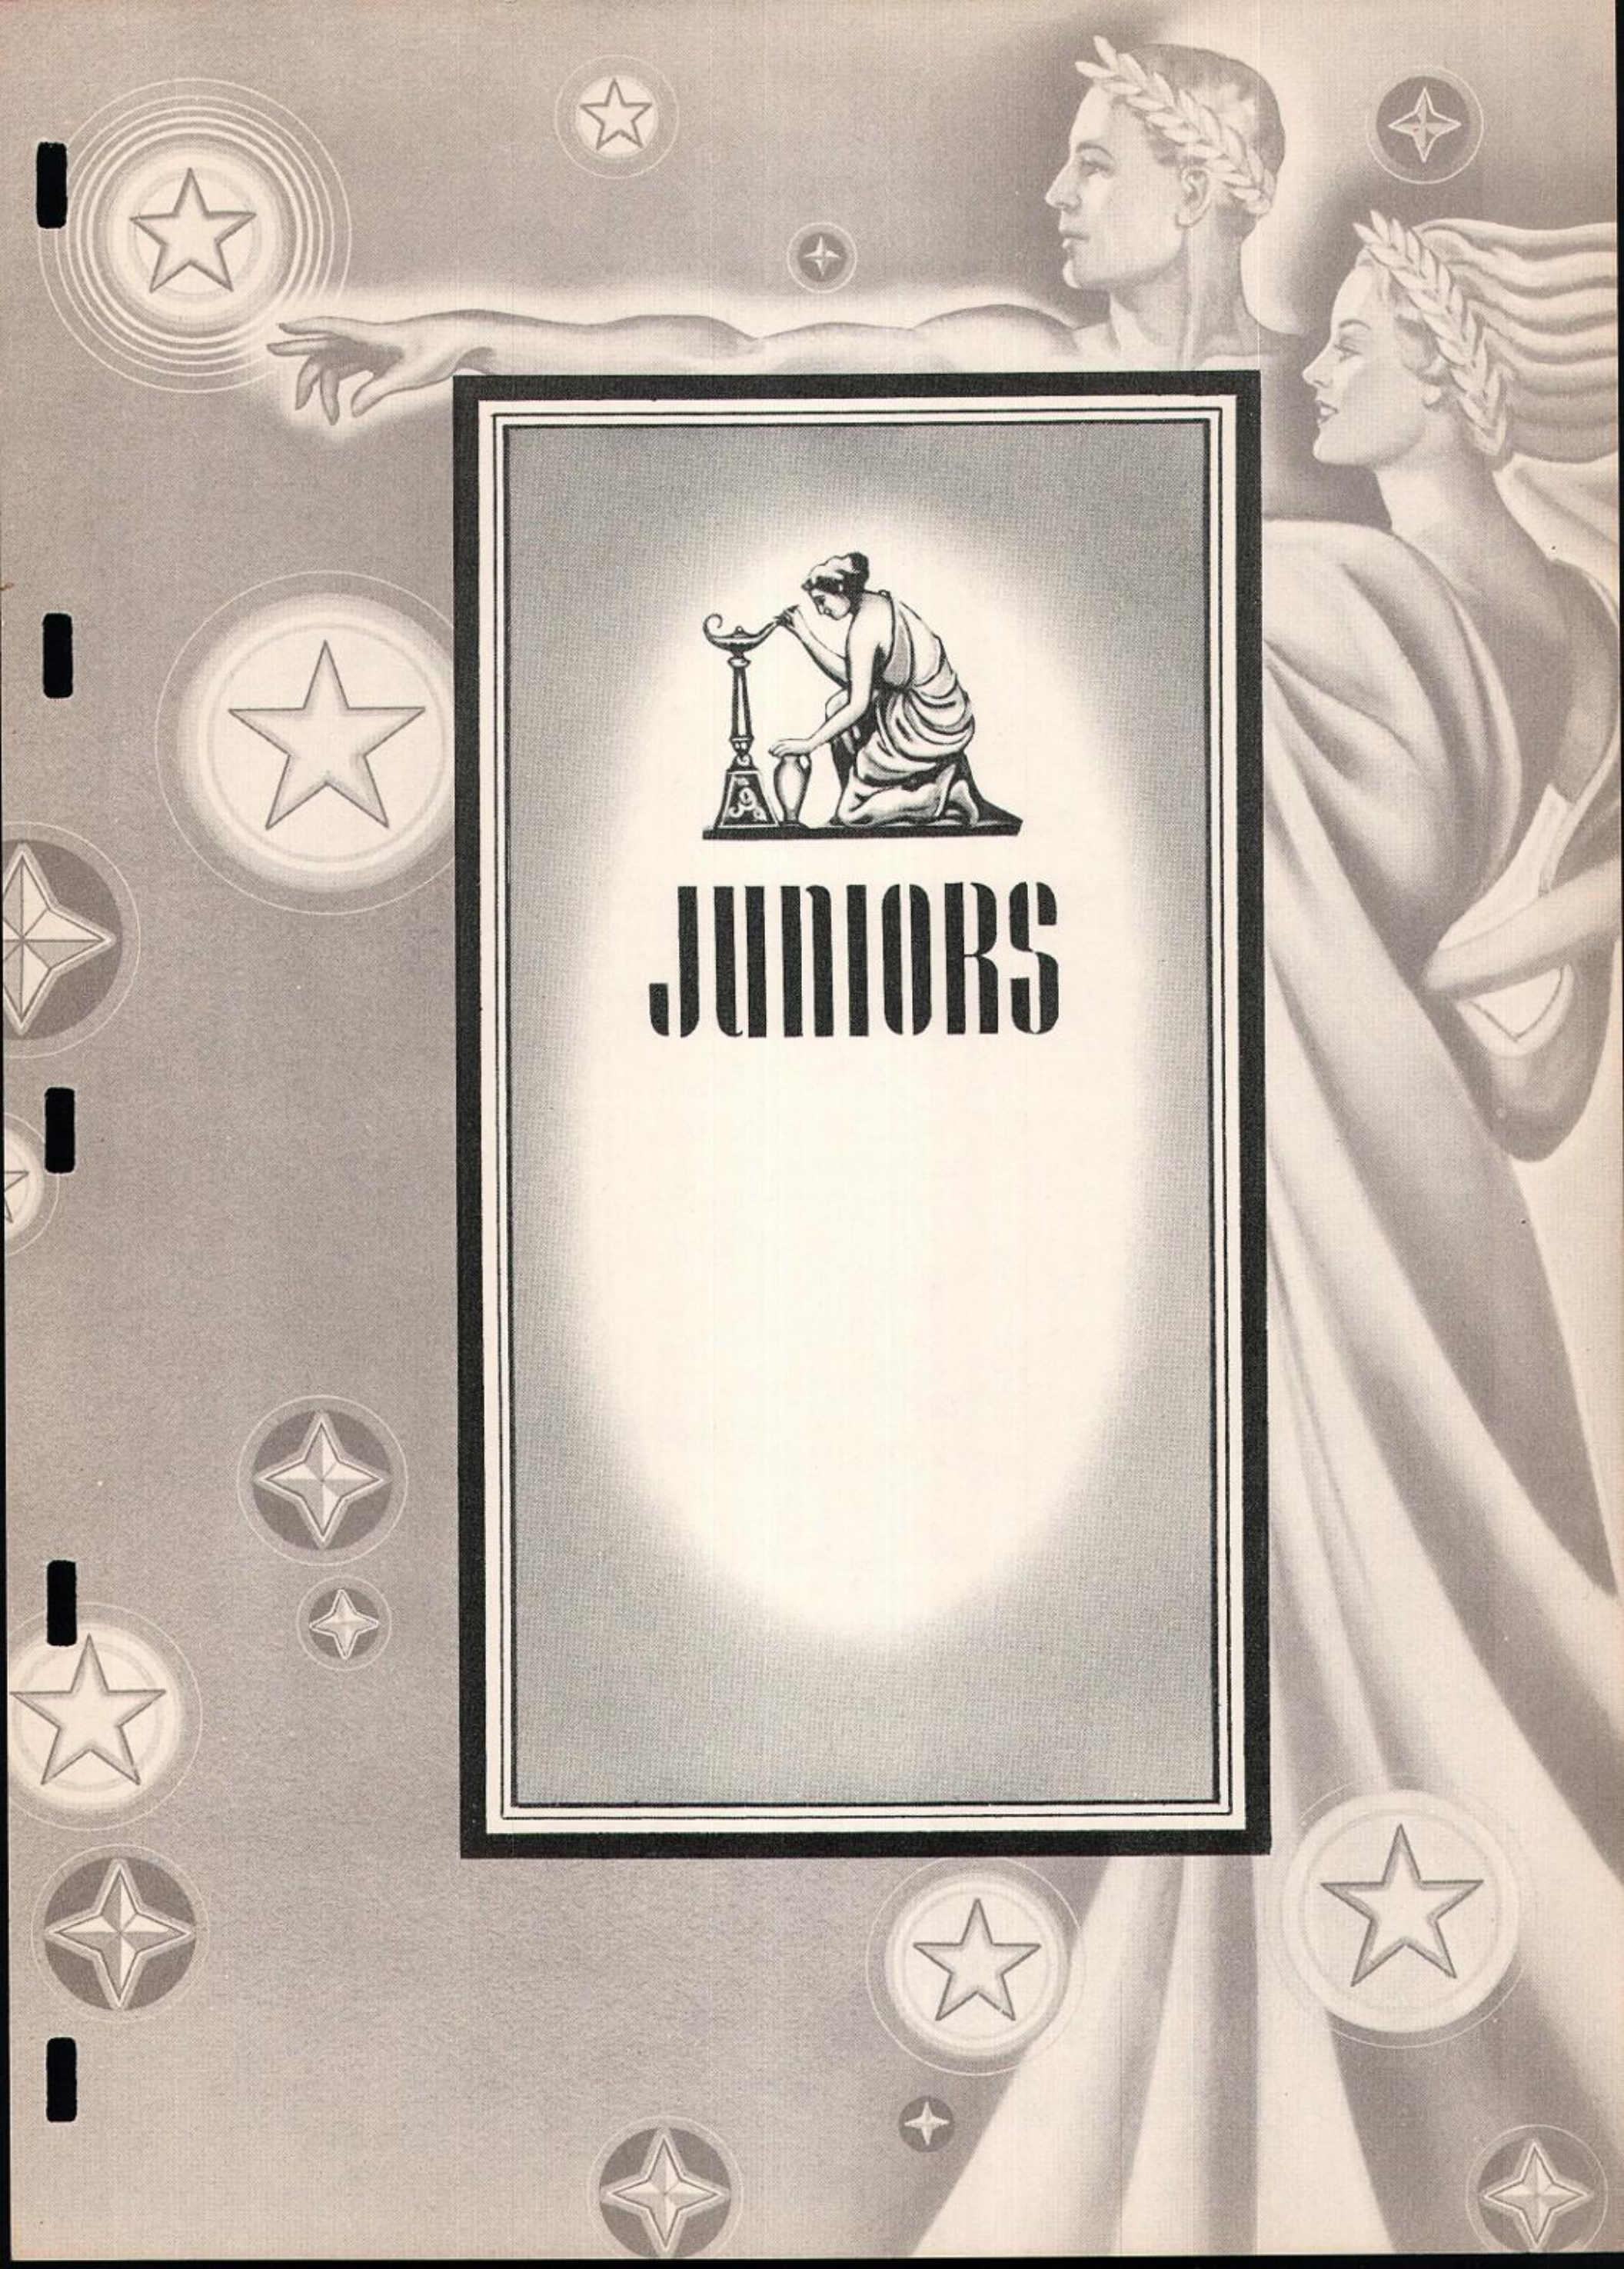

I, Joan Roblyer, bequeath my active tongue to Jerome Flohr.

I, David Nordlund, bequeath my fluent vocabulary to Bob Leach.
 I, LaVerne Sump, bequeath my parking spot at Peach Grove to Iola Wendland and my brother, Duane.
 I, Phil Byarlay, bequeath my whiskers to Jacob Noe.
 I, Harlan Forslund, bequeath my crabby disposition to Phyllis Pfaff.
 I, Opal Hedren, bequeath my Manhattan boyfriends (except one) to JoAnn Wendland.
 I, Ruth Pate, bequeath my ability to go steady to Arlis Bergsten.
 I, Dick Malmstrom, bequeath my "wooful" ways to Starr Byarlay.
 I, Lyle Pfaff, bequeath my ability to write checks on Pfaff Brothers to Wesley Glenn.
 I, Nancy Carnahan, bequeath my persistence to attain my heart's desire to Roger Carlson.
 I, Jim Anderson, bequeath my Sunday night dates (without Jackie, of course) to Donald White.
 I, Marion Brenner, bequeath my sweetheart of the Sophomore Class to my brother, David.
 I, Lu Ann Boles, bequeath my corny jokes to Clara DeLong.
 I, Junior Mann, bequeath my knowledge of the "Hot Spots of Dancing" and everything that goes with it to Warren Roblyer.
 I, Kay Springer, bequeath my ability to draw to Billy Estabrook.
 I, Arland Benteman, bequeath my shop ability to anyone who wants it.
 I, Claude DeLong, bequeath my dancing ability to Elmer Dettmer.
 I, Roger Stitt, bequeath my ability to miss school to Charlene Bell.
 I, Jerry Schwartz, bequeath my ability to run other people's business to Marilyn Netson.
 I, Buzzy Wendland, bequeath myself to all the underclassmen girls.
 I, Bob Springer, bequeath my curly hair to Neil Wagner.
 I, Jo Ann Burgman, bequeath my ability to type for ten minutes with one error to Jim Brooks.
 I, Marilyn Dettmer, bequeath my hand book "How to Get a Man and Keep Him" to Shirley Leach.

JUNIOR CLASS

Good Old R. R. H. S.!! September 5, 1949, eleven smiling-faced lads and lassies returned to your "Revered Halls of Learning", hoping to assume quietly (?) and with great dignity the roles of Juniors.

Our class put into action three boys for basketball and football. They are: Jim Brooks, Harold Hargrave, and David Brenner.

Arlis Bergsten, Joyce Malmstrom, and Alyce Wohler took part in girls' basketball, adding much to the scoring of our team.

November 18, 1949, we proudly presented a three act play, "Three Old Maid Aunts".

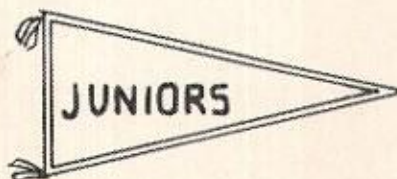

Playing a few hot notes on their clarinets, Patsy Lilley and Arlis Bergsten represented us in band, while Bill Estabrook and Joyce Malmstrom kept the rhythm "hot" with their tum-tum-tums of their drums. David Brenner helped in the saxophone section.

The big event of the year, of course, was the Junior-Senior Banquet given in April.

SOPHOMORE

In the Fall of '48, much to the dismay of Randolph High School, the class of 1952 entered the doors of R. R. H. S.

During our Freshman year, Mr. Koehler was elected our sponsor.

Ten boys and three girls lettered in Basketball. Three boys lettered in Track and eleven in Football.

Twenty-two members of our class reported for their second year of High School.

We contributed to the band this year.

Mrs. Bowman was elected our class sponsor.

A class party was given the 17th of January.

The Class of 1953 entered the doors of R. R. H. S., September 5, 1949 with an enrollment of 12 green Freshmen, six girls and six boys. Our enrollment was later enlarged to 13 by Wesley Glenn coming from Garrison. The Sophomores took the pleasure of initiating us September 9. That night we joined in the all-school party, which was very entertaining. The Freshmen boys had a double-dose of initiation, when the F. F. A. boys took them into their organization. Early in September we had a hayrack ride. This was our first class party. We enjoyed it very much.

We also took part in a few of the social activities. A school dance, December 2, was a new experience to some of us. December 20, we did our caroling, and December 22 was a thrill for us too, when we participated in the Christmas Cantata. As you see, we are trying to take all advantages that our high school offers.
